Unleash your creative artist while having fun!

For dancers, teachers and choreographers that want to discover new ways to work with a partner, reinvent their dance process, and be inspired with new ideas for the choreographic process, the Improvisation Partnering Workshop is for you! Through specific improvisation exercises and a non-conventional approach, you will create a partnership and break down personal barriers. This unique workshop is a fun filled, transformative dance experience!

All levels welcome! No set choreography.
