Hello Dance NYC!

Art Film Director Elliot Storey is looking for a lead Male dancer for his new feature length film project : CONFESSIONS.

The filming will occur over the last week of July/first week of August.

This is an unpaid opportunity but the schedule is based on 4 days of filming on location in the streets of NYC and won't be full work days (afternoons or mornings).

It will involve dance with sculpture (same sculpture in attached photo) in the public space and will see the lead dancer leave the ocean (Rockaways), walk/perform through the street of Brooklyn, 6 ave in Manhattan and finally rest in Central Park.

This is Elliot Storey's latest installment in his planned trilogy of films exploring man and the city as well as his own adaptations of poetry; this film is largely based on T.S.Eliot's poem 'The Wasteland'.

Looking forward to reviewing your applications.
