hey guys! my name is china celestin and i'm an aspiring modern/hip hop dancer who's looking for people who love to dance as a way to express themselves as individuals and want to be apart of a dance team that i want to start. i'm really a street dancer who was taught how to dance from music videos and youtube so if you have any kind of experience that's great, you can easily help with whatever knowledge you have and if you don't have much experience but you love to dance, that's amazing too! i really just want to meet amazing people who love to dance and be apart of a solid group.

P.S. i will accept anybody who is dedicated and willing and i don't know what the name of the dance group will be but we can all figure that out when that time comes. i also really wanna be apart of events that are going on in the new york area once we do practice enough.

if ANYONE is interested here are the requirements:

- must be 17+
- live in the New York/NYC area
- dedicated and hard working.
- willing to be apart of events and learn dances that we all make up together.
- i want this team to be diverse as possible so please don't hesitate to email me!

it would also be amazing if we had atleast 1-3 people who are experienced in dance to kindve help with techniques. i'm not sure how many people will be interested in this but i hope for the sake of dance, someone decides to be apart of this movement i'm trying to create.

if you're interested please email me at love2dancemovement@gmail.com and leave your name, your age, and why you want to be apart of this dance group and also your instagram if you have any videos of you dancing, if you don't have any videos on instagram you may send me a video through the email mentioned.

P.S i'm also going to be using my own money to rent out a space in the city for us to rehearse. the space is called Joffrey Dance center. i just sent an email to request if i can use the space on: August 11th from 2-6pm or August 18th at the same time. i will let the people who are asked to be on the team know if the dates are set or not to use.

- also i would love if the team was a maximum 15 people. boys and girls are fine. this is going to be both a recreational team and competitive.

I REALLY HOPE YOU WANT TO JOIN.
