Babay L. Angles (Angelica Janabajal Tolentino) is a Brooklyn, NY-based choreographer, dancer, interdisciplinary performance artist, educator, healer, and activist of Filipino descent. Babay L. Angles is passionate about utilizing dance to express the violence of our lives while still celebrating our resilience through conversation and community building in the language of funk and soul. She fuses Breakin', Rocking, and Modern dance to create narratives of resistance to highlight the strength of people of color, womyn, queer communities, indigenous peoples and those at the margins. More info can be found at babaylangles.com

Babay L. Angles is currently seeking an intern to edit recorded interviews and dance footage to document most recent project:

"Dreaming in BedStuy" uses movement and sound that honors the loss, resistance, and hope of its residents. Movement will be informed and accompanied by soundscapes created by recorded audio from interviews asking BedStuy residents the following questions:

What or who have you lost/gained in BedStuy in the past ten years?

What are the current problems/patterns we see in BedStuy?

What does daily resistance, look, sound, feel like in BedStuy?

What does freedom look, sound, dream, and feel like in BedStuy?

Movement practices include the cypher, call/response, hand clapping games, live percussion, storytelling through testimonio, and social and street style dances such as breaking, Vogueing, Waacking, and Hip Hop. In a moment where our bodies as people of color have been marked as dangerous, hypersexual, or invisible, this work uses movement to witness and testify our stories of struggle and resistance, and imagine new stories and narratives for our community.

We are looking for a short term Audio or Video Production & Editing Interns starting asap for 1-2 months. We will provide valuable learning experience.

You will perform the following tasks:

- Assistance in editing recorded interviews and/or editing dance footage of the "Dreaming in BedStuy Project."

We can offer:

- Flexible Hours
- Great exposure
- A friendly team with extensive expertise
- ability to work remotely

You should offer:

- Bachelor's degree preferred; also open to current undergraduate students.
- Basic non-linear editing skills (Final Cut Pro 7 or Premiere Pro) or Basic Garageband, Protools, Logic, or comparable audio editing skills.
- Excellent skills in communication, telephone, and research.
- Also important: creative thinking, problem-solving, and a basic knowledge of social/web media.

Please send your application with " Dreaming in Bedstuy Audio/ Video Production & Editing Internship Aug/Sep 2017

" in the subject line, thank you. Please include your resume, cover letter, and examples of work.
