Jennifer Muller/The Works seeks dedicated and enthusiastic interns for the Fall of 2017 and also on a rolling basis! Internships are offered on an ongoing basis, but can be created on a semester, quarterly or yearly schedule. The Works is thrilled to offer 2-3 internship positions; interns will contribute 8-15 hours per week in the office, with a flexible schedule. The Works would be happy to work with students obtain academic credit for their service, but it is also not a requirement. While this internship is unpaid, there is strong potential to lead into a part-time job opportunity. Interns must be 18 years of age and live in New York/New Jersey.

The Works is supportive and understanding of a learning environment, and will welcome any level of experience. The nonprofit is looking for interns with a mature attitude and willingness to learn! Interns should also be comfortable in working in a team setting as well as working independently. Interning with Jennifer Muller/The Works will allow students and young professionals to gain hands-on and valuable experience in the management and operations of a dance company in NYC.

Benefits of an internship with JMTW:

- You will gain professional experience to build your resume in the NYC dance field.
- You will network with dance professionals and work closely with members of the artistic community.
- You will learn a wide range of skills (administration, technical theater, booking and scheduling, etc.).
- You will be able to volunteer at and attend performances.
- You will be mentored and encouraged to ask questions, give input, and receive feedback.
- You will be an invaluable part of The Works' creative and administrative team!
