Positions are available for Fall Season: mid-September 2017 through January 2018; and Spring Season: January through June 2018.

Performance Space 122's Programming Internship provides the opportunity to learn about the operations of a non-profit live performance institution. Programming Interns will support the Senior Producer with the planning, administration and execution of its artistic programs, while working alongside some of today's most exciting contemporary artists.

Interns should be motivated, organized, have a sense of humor, and an interest in arts management/administration. Proficiency with MS Word, Excel, and GoogleDocs is required. Commitment is a minimum of two full work-days, with occasional evening hours for special events as needed. Programming Interns receive a transportation stipend and free admission to Performance Space 122's 2017-18 season. Applicants from all backgrounds are encouraged to apply. Please send a resume and brief cover letter to office@ps122.org.
