Dancewave seeks an experienced, highly organized and innovative individual with superior communication and program management skills to take on the role of Director of Education. In 2019, Dancewave will open a new cultural center in Gowanus, Brooklyn and we are seeking to fill this role with someone who can make a 2+ year commitment and grow with us as we expand our organization to serve more youth.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

Dancewave's Director of Education is responsible for day-to-day management and administrative oversight of the organization's educational programs.

Program & Staff Management

- Manage the education team, including full-time and part-time staff, teaching artists, and interns.
- Work collaboratively with the Executive/Artistic Director and Managing Director to administer and grow educational programs.
- Manage evaluation of educational programs to ensure continued program development and success.
- Oversee hiring processes and contracts for School at Dancewave Teaching Artists, facilitating Company Program hiring processes in collaboration with Company Program Manager and Executive/Artistic Director.
- Oversee and establish policies and procedures for education programs, ensuring consistent language and application of policies among programs.
- Work collaboratively with the School Manager to develop and grow School at Dancewave curricula, plan classes, and schedule semesters.
- Manage relationships with community partners for ongoing Dancewave classes held at satellite locations.
- Actively seek and developing partnerships and new initiatives with peer and local organizations in support of program development.
- Work collaboratively with Marketing and School staff to produce content for informational and marketing materials.
- Manage and expand, in collaboration with the Development Manager, the Dancewave Scholarship Initiative by overseeing scholarship auditions and awards.
- Work collaboratively with the D-Wave in Motion Coordinator to coordinate program and scholarship auditions in public schools.
- Collaboratively design and implement annual training and staff development workshop with D-Wave in Motion Coordinator, Executive/Artistic Director and consultants.
- Provide excellent customer service to all students, staff and constituents.

Financial Management

- Manage monthly payroll for School at Dancewave Teaching Artists and Company Program staff.
- Oversee School and Company program budgets, tracking enrollment figures, setting goals for program growth and initiating strategies with program staff to reach these goals.
- With School Manager, create Profit/Loss reports for School at Dancewave and Company programs.

Event Management

- Direct special events and semester-based performances for the School at Dancewave and Company programs, ensuring event success.
- Develop event budgets and creating financial reports for the Executive/Artistic Director and Managing Director.
- Manage Dancewave's participation in outreach and marketing events.
- Take a leadership role within the Dancewave team at all public events.
