

Thursday, November 30, 2017

New Choreographic Residency Opportunity at USC Kaufman

Company: USC Glorya Kaufman School of Dance
Location: Los Angeles, CA

► Share | Print | Download

Glorya Kaufman International Dance Center | Photo: Ema Peterson

USC Glorya Kaufman School of Dance is now accepting applications to its first-ever residency program for LA-based and/or female professional choreographers. Resident artists will be granted studio space in the Glorya Kaufman International Dance Center for three weeks beginning in May 2018. Selected artists will also have access to mentorship by USC Kaufman faculty and artists, in addition to artistic support and involvement by USC Kaufman students.

The deadline to apply is January 2, 2018. For an application and details, visit <https://kaufman.usc.edu/residency/>.

Timeline

- November 16, 2017 | Call for proposals
- January 2, 2018 | Deadline to submit application and all attachments
- January 2018 | Review and selection of applications
- February 2018 | Announce selected artists/projects (up to three to be chosen)
- May 16 – June 9, 2018 | Residency period (minimum of 125 hours available)
- June 9, 2018 | Culminating works in progress showings in USC Kaufman's Performance Studio

Learn more at <https://kaufman.usc.edu/usc-kaufman-establishes-new-movement-residency-program/>. Questions? Contact Renae Williams-Niles, USC Kaufman Chief Operating Officer at (213) 821-6981 or uscdance@usc.edu.

USC Glorya Kaufman School of Dance
849 West 34th Street KDC 203
Los Angeles, CA, 90089
(213) 740-9327
<https://kaufman.usc.edu/>

For more information:
Renae Williams Niles
uscdance@usc.edu
(213) 821-6981

< back

previous listing • next listing