BRICLab is a commissioning and residency development program for Brooklyn and New York City-based artists to explore and expand the possibilities of their work in music, dance, theater and multi-disciplinary performance. Free and open exploration and intentional commitment to process – with the support of the staff and resources that BRIC offers – are at the heart of the BRICLab program. Artists receive stipends and an intensive residency in BRIC's Artist Studio with development time, opportunities for artistic mentoring, and work-in-process performances. Applications are now open for the 2018 BRICLab program.

DEADLINE: Tuesday, January 16, 2018 (11:59pm)

Artists receive:

- Exclusive use of the BRIC House Artist Studio for 10-12 days (8am – 10pm)
- Artist stipend of $1750
- Additional $200 for Creative Advisor honorarium
- Technical support from BRIC's production staff
- Two work-in-progress showings, determined by BRIC and usually in the evenings on Thursday & Friday of the 2nd week of the residency, followed by artist/audience dialogues
- Photographic and video documentation of showings
