shine™
pop-up classes and parties for kids

Shine is New York City's leading provider of pop-up classes, parties, workshops, events, and camps for kids ages 0-10 years old. We take children's education, enrichment, and entertainment out of traditional environments and make them mobile by creating unique pop-up experiences in client's homes, a building's common space, or at venues in and around Manhattan.

Job Description

We are looking for a dynamic Head Teacher to instruct early childhood arts-enrichment classes ranging in the subjects of art, science, cooking, music, movement, literacy, foreign language immersion, or any combination of the above.

The instructor will be responsible for leading small groups of children ages 2-7 years old. The instructor should be able to follow a curriculum while adding their own unique teaching style, inspiration, and experience.

The instructor must be polished, flexible, hard-working, outgoing, and good with children and adults.

We are looking for individuals with experience in the field of early childhood education and/or the arts who are extremely comfortable leading children in high profile environments. We offer competitive pay and room for growth within a developing small business.

Qualifications

Minimum 1 years work experience with children ages 2 - 10 years old

Minimum 2 years experience teaching specialty subject

Minimum Bachelor's Degree in Education or Speciality Subject

Must have a creative sensibility and be articulate, organized, self-motivated, high energy, and able to work independently and as part of a team.

Fluency in a foreign language is a plus
