Luke Murphy-Attic Projects (Ireland/New York City)

Luke Murphy is seeking a range of Male and Female performers for projects throughout 2018 and 2019. Projects include replacements for international touring of The Dust We Raised, a new site specific work for Cork Midsummer Festival and research weeks in the Summer 2018 towards two new creations in 2019.

Seeking experienced professionals with strong physicality, presence and an affinity for theatrical work. All opportunities are paid + travel and accommodation if required.

To apply please email atticprojects@gmail.com with CV and photograph. Selected applicants will be invited to attend research rehearsals in either Dublin (Feb 24th and 25th) or NYC (March 12th and 13th). Please be advised there will be no cuts and applicants should be available for both days.

Luke Murphy is an Irish performer working with Punchdrunk 2009-2017, Ultima Vez 2014-2018, Kate Weare 2011-2013, Pavel Zustiak, Martha Clarke and others. Since 2012 he has created five evening length works through his own company Attic Projects. Attic Projects creates original works of dance theatre in distinct atmospheric landscapes of performance playing across the mediums of dance, theatre, film and installation. Attic Projects has been supported by various institutions in Ireland and the U.S and presented internationally.
