The Mark Morris Dance Group is currently seeking qualified and versatile teaching artists for its Children & Teens' and Community Education programs. We are also looking for Assistant Teaching Artists, Substitute Teachers, and Adult Class Faculty.

Openings include:

- Hip-Hop
- Jazz
- Adaptive Dance
- World Dance (Salsa, Bhangra, Flamenco, and others)

We are also looking, but have limited spots, for teachers of ballet, modern, contemporary, and tap. We are open to other teaching styles as well.

Our Education Programs reflect the spirit of the Mark Morris Dance Group in their celebration of dance and music. We believe that the study of various dance forms and music is essential to a child's education and development. We offer a diverse range of classes for all ages and abilities and strive to be a center of creative activity for children, community residents, and professional dancers.
