The Little Gym of Brooklyn Heights and The Little Gym of Dumbo are looking for part-time instructors.

We're looking for an energetic, responsible, engaging instructor to add to our awesome staff. We value skill, the ability to think on your feet, creativity and enthusiasm.

We teach non-competitive gymnastics, dance and parent/child classes for ages 4 months through 12 years. This position is primarily for teaching 3-12 year olds with the option to be trained in baby/toddler classes.

Your first responsibility will be to teach great classes using our proven curriculum and teaching methods, supplemented by your own experience, ideas and personality.

In addition, you will be doing light desk work, handling inquiries, and building relationships with the families that come here.

We have a lot of performers working here and are supportive of a flexible schedule. The hours are great for auditions!

This job offers:

- competitive compensation and benefits
- ongoing career training and opportunity for advancement
- a fun, high energy environment
- rewarding, fulfilling work with great kids, families and staff.

A background in child development, physical education, dance and/or gymnastics is required. Additional prior customer service experience is preferred.

Must have afternoon and weekend availability

Please include weekly work availability and salary requirements with your resume.
