

Monday, May 14, 2018

CPP NYC Summer Intensive with public showing

Company: Curet Performance Project
Location: Bronx, NY

► Share | Print | Download

Fernando Moya Delgado

Curet Performance Project kicks off season 7 with a 2018 summer intensive.

3 days of movement research, choreographic investigation and rigorous contemporary dance training with the dancers of Curet Performance Project.

Description:

Explore modes of physical resistance, notions of systems and choreographic approach in a collaborative setting. While learning brand new season 7 repertoire and choreographic practice with CPP dancers.

Workshop is geared towards all bodies and movement backgrounds but molded for pre-professional dancers. All are encouraged to register and take the space together.

Submission and fee:

Space is limited. Please submit CV, and movement video with a short paragraph describing your interest for taking part in our summer intensive. All materials sent to:
curetperformanceproject@gmail.com

Cost of three day workshop is 75$. Workshops must be paid in full upon submission acceptance. Dancers must be present for all three days.

Schedule:

July 11th at 6pm-8pm

- Afro-Latin rhythm and contemporary forms.
- Resistance as a choreographic language pt 1: building a movement through collaboration.

July 12th at 6pm-8pm

- Body resistance: through floor-work, partnering and improv.
- Resistance as a choreographic language pt 2: building a movement through collaboration.

July 13th at 5pm-7pm

- Body in response: wrap up, review and public showing preparation.
- FREE public showing.

Curet Performance Project
Bronx, NY
<http://megancuret.com/cpp-nyc-summer-intensive>

For more information:
Megan Curet
curetperformanceproject@gmail.com

< back

previous listing • next listing