Nimbus Dance Works will curate an evening of live performances celebrating Pride in all its colors! Co-presented by The Jersey City LGBT Pride Festival and curated by Nimbus' Director of Operations, Justin Perez, this edition of OFFLINE celebrates the diversity and identity of performing arts and performing artists.

Acts will be chosen through an online application process. Acts of all disciplines are welcome to apply (dancing, voguing, waacking, drag, breaking, spoken word, music, etc.) . Proposed work should be no longer than 12 minutes.

OFFLINE Pride will take place at Nimbus' black box theatre (165 Newark Ave, Jersey City, NJ) on Friday, August 24 at 7:30pm. Tickets include admission to an event after-party.

All selected artists will be encouraged to promote the event and will have access to 6 discounted tickets.

Note: A portion of the proceeds will be donated to Hudson Pride Center
