We are looking for creative collaborators for our new work, debuting this December as a part of our full-length evening production at the Actors Fund Theatre.

The new work, titled "I'mMigration" explores HUEman moveMEANT, boundries and opportunities through creative storytelling in the forms of dance, visual art, film, photography, poetry, music and multi-disciplinary work.

We are looking for a couple choreographers, dancers, artists and storytellers who are interested in creating engaging and collaborative work.

If you are interested, please come to our open rehearsal this Monday, July 23rd at Mark Morris Dance Center 4:30-6:30pm. Space is limited, please RSVP: <https://www.artful.ly/store/events/15651>
