Brace Life Fitness Solutions is looking for new personal trainers to add to their team of experienced and fantastic fitness professionals.

Dubbed a "New York Top Fitness Guru" by the New York Daily News, and a "Top Celebrity Trainer" by Bloomberg Businessweek; Robert Brace is a celebrity fitness trainer, television personality, former soloist ballet dancer with The Metropolitan Opera Ballet and star of the Food Network's weight-loss reality show "Fat Chef." Robert trains his clients in his exclusive fitness studio and is looking for personal trainers to add to his team.

We are looking for trainers who are certified and insured. Preferably with three years experience. However, we are also willing to train and work with the right people from the ground up. A background in dance/sports/coaching or instruction is a bonus. You must be personable, and able to work well with clients of all backgrounds, fitness levels, and abilities. You must also be willing to learn a new system and adapt our studio's guidelines.

Trainers with availability in the mornings from 6:30-10:30 am and in the evenings from 4:30-8:30am will be given preference. You must be interested in building a career in the fitness industry.

Please send your resume to info@robertbrace.com and include a cover letter stating why you think you'd be a great addition to our team.
