"The Salon" @ Spoke the Hub is returning to Union Street this Fall and it promises to bring guests a delightfully fresh smorgasbord of Dance, Music, Film, Storytellers, Clowning/Circus Arts and other non-categorizable once a-month artistic collaborations in an informal and intimate setting in the heart of Park Slope.

The goal of the "Salons" is to get new work and new artists "out there" in front of new audiences in a relaxed as well as social setting.

The space holds up to 50 guests and has bare bone lighting and sound capabilities.

There is no charge to the participants but a nominal admission will be asked at the door ($10) to cover the costs of opening, closing, setting up/striking, and cleaning the space.

All participants will do their part to publicize the events by distributing and posting flyers, and promoting on their social media platforms.
