Humanistics Dance Company – a New York city based contemporary dance company is looking for experienced, classically trained, technical modern dance artists for the development of new repertory. Dancers should have artistic maturity, a sense of self and comfort working in collaborative processes. Experience in theatre is a plus.

Dancers must be available for rehearsals beginning mid- October:

Thursdays from 9:00 AM-1:00 PM

And

Fridays 7:00 PM-9:00 PM

With possible occasional additional rehearsals Mondays 5:00 PM-8:00 PM

Monthly stipend and performance pay. Interested artists, please send a resume, bio and dance reel to humanisticsdance@gmail.com

About Humanistics Dance Company:

Founded with the belief that the performing arts can and should play an important role in creating more connected, humanized societies by encouraging communication, understanding and personal development to bridge cultural and socio-economic gaps; Humanistics Dance Company's mission is to use the connective, empathetic and communicative power of dance to express universal messages of humanitarianism through performance and community outreach.
