The Kennedy Dancers, Inc./Tom Horan

If you are between the ages of 15 and 24 and seriously interested in dance, The Kennedy Dancers, Inc. is reaching out to you. We have classes geared toward teaching teens and young adults, who cannot afford expensive lessons. We have intermediate to advanced level classes, and for those who qualify, classes are free of charge. For those who meet the requirements for free classes, you must agree to perform in our concert work.

To apply, email us a link to your dance reel. If you do not have any video of your performances, you can make an appointment for an in-class audition at our studio. We have classes Monday through Friday from 4:30pm - 8:30pm that may be suitable to your schedule and needs. Various dance disciplines are taught.

Please email inquiries to Diane Dragone, Artistic Director, at kennedydancers@aol.com. The Kennedy Dancers, Inc. is located at 79 Central Avenue, Jersey City, New Jersey 07306, accessible by PATH train and NJ Transit from New York and New Jersey mass transit connections.

This program is funded in part by the Dragone Family Fund For Dance. Students may reside in New York or New Jersey. There is no residency requirement for this program.
