CLASS DESCRIPTION

Cecily Campbell of the Trisha Brown Dance Company will lead participants through phrase material and compositional explorations from the late choreographer's work. The class begins with a warm-up to integrate the breath and full dimension of the body, with movement exercises focusing on awareness of spacial clarity and efficiency in physicality. We will use improvisation to get inside the bones of some of Brown's choreographic ideas and then incorporate those ideas into specific phrases from Brown's 1985 piece Working Title.

ABOUT CECILY CAMPBELL

Cecily Campbell is from Santa Fe, New Mexico and holds a BFA in dance from New York University Tisch School of the Arts. She was a company member of Shen Wei Dance Arts from 2008 to 2013 and began working with the Trisha Brown Dance Company in 2012. Cecily frequently teaches public classes for the company in New York, as well as master classes around the world while on tour. She was a guest teacher at the NYU Tisch Summer Program this year and will be a part of a re-staging project with the Lyons Opera Ballet in December.
