We are looking for certified fitness professionals who can coach following the FBZ programming style and provide a seamless experience for clients. You will receive proper training on the FBZ training philosophy and have the ability to contribute your own ideas. The right candidate for this role will have experience teaching boot camp style classes (outdoors is a plus) and will be available to teach 1x or 2x per week at Fort Greene Park, Brooklyn NY for FBZ's signature outdoor boot camp program. The program will commence when the weather warms up this spring and run through Labor Day. We have run this program the last 3 summers and are seeking a Head Trainer to take over the instruction and help drive new customer recruitment through your network.

QUALIFICATIONS

Fitness certification from a leading certifying authority (ACE, NASM...)

Nutrition and other specialty certifications a plus

Customer first: you deliver 110% to each and every session with a client. In group classes, you make an effort to know everyone personally. You believe that providing an exceptional experience is the key to success.

Able to assess movement patterns and make recommendations

Professional: you take pride in your work and carry yourself accordingly with all stakeholders
