The José Limón Dance Foundation is now accepting resumes for the Winter/Spring 2019 Arts Administration Internship Program, providing professional internship opportunities to deserving and distinguished candidates. We are currently offering professional experiences in arts administration: Development, Communications, Research & Archival, and General Arts Administration. Recent college graduates, undergraduates, and high school students are eligible to apply.

The José Limón Dance Foundation has set the standard of excellence among the dance field in terms of artistry, educational service, community engagement, and historic cultural preservation for the past 72 years. The Foundation exists with a dual mission: first, to provide an environment and vehicle for encouraging vision and creativity in the field of dance, and second, to perpetuate and extend the vitality of the Limón legacy— a humanistic approach to movement and theater through two interrelated fields of activity: Limón Dance Company and Limón Institute, including our educational and licensing activities. Our robust roster of artistic and educational services encompass dance training, professional development, creative incubation, performance, and social action. These services hold the increasingly important responsibility of creating access to and admiration for dance for artists, audiences, students, and cultural policymakers.

The Arts Administration Internship Program requires a seasonal 4-month, 12 hours per week commitment between March 2019 and June 2019 during weekday business hours from 10:00AM - 6:00PM. Interns are also required to send weekly reports to their direct supervisor(s).

Please note that we are not able to provide a stipend, housing, or any other kind of compensation. The Foundation does partner with institutions so that interns can receive academic credit; are able to take dance classes at Limón; and attend special events at no charge.

DEVELOPMENT INTERN

The Development Intern is a highly motivated, detail-oriented, multi-tasker who seeks to acquire knowledge about arts non-profit fundraising strategies, donor cultivation and stewardship, planning for special events, and research on institutional funding in a fast-paced environment. Candidates must demonstrate an ability to maintain confidentiality, the ability to coordinate a high volume of diverse assignments with exquisite attention to detail, effectively handle competing priorities, excellent writing and copy-editing skills, and have strong interpersonal communication skills to serve as an Ambassador to the Foundation. The successful intern will report directly to Director of Development (DoD).

We are looking for a recent graduate or college student who can commit to 12 hours/week for specialized projects; some weekend hours are required. The Development Internship is a wonderful opportunity for a budding arts administrator to learn how to sustain the contributed income of a nonprofit organization to one day manage, direct, or start your own nonprofit entity.

Responsibilities for the Development Intern include but are not limited to:

- Assist the DoD with event planning and execution for the Spring Gala and monthly cultivation and appreciation events and performances
- Assist the DoD with Lovers of Limón Membership Program communications and fulfillment of member benefits
- Conduct institutional and individual donor prospect research and deliver briefings
- Compile information to create our comprehensive monthly e-newsletter
- Update tracking sheets and databases
- Archive grant materials in organizational server
- Generate donor gift and other informational reports
- Manage donor tax acknowledgement mailings
- Assist with departmental purchase orders
- Errand running as necessary

COMMUNICATIONS INTERN

The Communications Intern is detailed-oriented, initiative-driven person who participates in various stages of print and online marketing campaigns in a fast-paced environment. We are looking for a recent graduate or college student who is able to work 12 hours/week. Candidates should be familiar with basic computer hardware and software including Excel, Photoshop, InDesign, Final Cut Pro, HTML (or the ability to learn editing programs quickly).

Candidates must demonstrate an ability to maintain confidentiality, the ability to coordinate a high volume of diverse assignments with exquisite attention to detail, effectively handle competing priorities, excellent writing and copy-editing skills, and design skills. We are looking for a recent graduate or college student who can commit to 12 hours/week. The Communications Internship is a great opportunity to learn how to effectively deploy organizational branding values and artistic and educational activities to over 50,000 constituents. The successful intern will report directly to Director of Development (DoD) and Director of Education (DoE).
