DunnDanse is a performing arts organization dedicated to the exposure and use of the arts as a medium of expression, entertainment, and empowerment. We're committed to producing high quality performances that provide our community with a source of transformation in mental health, self-love, and social awareness. Our professional performances are meant to connect intellectually, and emotionally, with our audience. A DunnDanse show weaves together high quality movement and performance art/multimedia to deliver a seamless sensory experience that enlightens and challenges our audience.

We need a marketing guru who can develop Facebook Advertising, growing Instagram followers, Google Adwords, Email Marketing, and more. You will be working closely with our designer to develop advertising campaigns, and reaching out to pre established partners to further promotionally range.

Our ideal candidate is both extremely technically competent AND who cares about our message.

Please provide a resume AND a cover letter

Payment negotiable
