

Tuesday, October 15, 2019

African Dances Teaching Artists

Company: Siren - Protectors of the Rainforest, Inc.
Location: Brooklyn, NY
Compensation: $50 to $75/hr

► Share | Print | Download

King Napoleon

Essential Duties and Responsibilities for Teaching Artists who specialize in teaching African and African Diasporic dance and/or African and African Diasporic percussive techniques

Facilitate professional development workshops for teachers with a focus on the Blueprints of learning dance as set forth by the NYC Board of Education

Attend FDC strength-based training for workers

Participate in curriculum development meetings at resident schools

Communicate with school administrators/teachers to determine workshop scheduling

Participate in planning/reflection meetings with Siren staff and school partners

Support program assessment and evaluation procedures

Support the planning and coordination of student culminating events

Attend workshop observations, professional development, and reflection meetings

Submit work hours on a monthly basis

Job Type: Contract

Siren - Protectors of the Rainforest, Inc.
Brooklyn, NY, 11216
917-455-0719
www.sirenprotect.org

For more information:
Mafor Mambo Tse
sirenprotect@gmail.com
917-455-0719

< back

previous listing • next listing