PITTSBURGH BALLET THEATRE (PBT) invites qualified candidates to submit applications to become its next Artistic Director. The Artistic Director is responsible for conceiving, developing and implementing the artistic vision and focus of PBT and the PBT School – and, importantly, articulating this vision internally and more broadly to PBT's community. Serving in a co-leadership role with PBT's Executive Director, the next Artistic Director will bring inspiration, creativity, and engagement to the organization. They will possess a clear understanding of and commitment to the heritage of classical ballet while having the ability to move and mold the art form into the future, building greater audience engagement and communicating a creative picture of what ballet can be in the 21st century.

Pittsburgh Ballet Theatre has engaged Management Consultants for the Arts (www.mcaonline.com) to lead this important search. More information is available at: <https://tinyurl.com/yxavsyn8>

Organization Information:

Currently celebrating its 50th Anniversary Season, Pittsburgh Ballet Theatre has built a legacy of excellence and innovation since 1969. Since 1997, the organization has flourished under the artistic direction of Terrence S. Orr, former American Ballet Theatre ballet master and principal dancer. Mr. Orr has created a powerful repertoire, including fresh versions of traditional ballets, original works commissioned to contemporary American music and dramatic works that push the boundaries of ballet as an art form. Through more than 50 performances each year at home and on tour, PBT audiences discover the passion and joy of ballet.
