New Chamber Ballet is seeking advanced professional female-identifying ballet dancers to participate in a two-day workshop, which can serve as an audition for a permanent position with the company.

We are looking for dancers who are 5'7" or taller with excellent pointework, who demonstrate strong artistry and a desire to collaborate and experiment with new work in contemporary ballet. Applicants should be comfortable in various classical and contemporary styles; partnering experience is a plus. New Chamber Ballet is based in New York City, and presents performances of new work September-June each year in New York and throughout the US and abroad, with all performances consistently compensated.

Workshop dates:

Mon 1/6, 10am-3pm;

Tue 1/7, 10am-3pm.

The workshop is free, and participants may use it as an audition, or simply attend for an intensive learning experience. Each day will begin with a technique class developed by Artistic Director Miro Magloire and the company, which includes floorwork exercises and a pointe-focused center. Class is followed by a repertory workshop which will vary each day.

To apply, please send your resume, headshot or dance photo, and a link to a recent video of yourself dancing to mail@newchamberballet.com by Thursday, January 2nd. The number of workshop participants is limited, and pre-registration is required. We prefer that all dancers attend both days of the workshop, but if you would like to attend and have a scheduling conflict, please let us know in your application email and we will take that into consideration.

We look forward to working with you in the studio!
