Design, build, construct, fit, purchase online, launder, maintain (sew holes, repair, steam, iron, etc..), and rent costumes (when applicable, prior approval needed by Chair).

Fall Plays, The Musical, and Shakespeare have a range of numbers of cast members depending on the play.
Dance Concerts have a range of numbers of choreographers, which may include Faculty, Adjunct Faculty, Alumni and students. The number of performers changes dramatically every concert depending on cast.

*Compensation does not change with an increase or decrease in cast members or choreographers.

Attend 3 Production meetings for every production to meet with the tech and design crew.

Attend Tech Week for all dress rehearsals to ensure the smooth running of costume needs:

Create a Check-List for every performer that is visible on a hanger with a diddy bag
Ensure all costumes are ready on a rack, divided by performer
Each diddy bag is labeled with Performer's Name, and every item that performer wears/uses,
Oversee crew who will assist you with the Check out every costume piece to each performer at the beginning of every Tech/Performance
Oversee crew who will assist you with the checking costumes back in at the end of the Tech/Performance for every performer.

After the performance run is over:

Launder costumes (sometimes by dry-cleaning)

Return costumes to our Costume Collection.

All newly made and purchased costumes are photographed and added to the Costume Catalog.

Manage the use of a Credit Card for costume purchase

All receipts and credit card purchases are organized by date and handed in to the Administrative Assistant within two weeks after the performance for processing.

A spreadsheet of purchases listing every item, cost, and total cost for the production must be turned in to the Chair with two weeks after the performance ends.

All costume returns need to be returned within one week after the performance ends
All costume rentals need to be returned within 5 business days after the performance ends.
