Seeking passionate, technical dancers trained in a variety of styles/techniques for performance and video projects this spring. The purpose of the show is to debut the company and showcase our work for potential sponsors. Footage and pictures of rehearsals and performance will be provided for use in the dancers' reel.

Please email your headshot, resume & availability for an audition form.

The open call audition will be in the form of a class, on January 25th, 2020, 7:30-9pm at Dancewave Studios in Brooklyn. Elements of ballet, modern, jazz, hip-hop, sports, and world styles are integrated into the Caribbean Modern Technique. Experience with improvisation, acro, and partnering is a plus, also with an open-minded willingness to create. There will be weekly classes and rehearsals TBD.
