We invite you to join us for our free, weekly improv jam No Time Zone on Saturday! This week, we are happy to announce that Sarah Chiesa will be the leader of our jam.

Sarah Lisette Chiesa is an interdisciplinary artist who works in Cultural Exchange and Site-Specific Performance around the world. A signature of her aesthetic as an artist is the way in which she uses the process of making body casts as tangible objects that represent both process and product in performance. The body casting incorporates an educational communal experience as well as a self-reflective one.

Sarah was born in New York and is currently located in San Francisco, California. Sarah has lived and worked in the United States, Europe, Mexico, and Venezuela. She attended North Carolina School of the Arts in high school with Modern Dance Concentration, received a BFA from SUNY Purchase College in 2004, a Postgraduate in Choreography from the Salzburg Experimental Academy of Dance in 2014, and received her MFA from University of Washington in 2020.

As a professional dancer she has worked with artists such as Kazuko Hirabayashi, Sidra Bell, Noemie LaFrance, Tania Perez-Salas, Stefan Dreher, Hubert Lepka, Yang Jiang, Franca Ferarri, Brian Brooks, and Daniel Charon. Sarah was a full-time company member with Shen Wei Dance Arts for 5.5 years where she first met Guanglei Hui.

As an interdisciplinary artist she has collaborated with filmmakers, designers, and musicians such as Dom Bouffard, John Mattuizzi, Jacopo Foggini, Yuval Avital, Pier Giorgio Casotti, Mario Vighi, Luciano Bosi, Fabrizio Orsi, Chanhee Choi, Abbey Blackwell, and Abigail Jara.
