What other character would be better or most interesting to don into the looks of besides Joker, Right! Right now in the DCEU (DC Extended Universe, if you like What's DCEU?) Joker is the only character that we have seen multiple times and every time in a different look and story, which gives us quite a variety to choose from. Well, don't judge me, but I really like the Jared Leto Joker costume. Again, I LIKED THE LOOKS, not the acting, nor the lines because Joker is the best one liner that DC has in its pocket. And yeah I think anyone can see these looks on a Halloween night.
