GALLIM seeks a Marketing and Communications Intern with strong design skills to join our team. We are a small, dynamic team with exciting projects on the horizon.

About GALLIM

Brooklyn-based company GALLIM is a multi-disciplinary production company expanding movement expression in live and digital experience. Formed in 2008 as a performing company for celebrated choreographer Andrea Miller's original work, GALLIM has evolved into a nexus of creativity for artists making meaningful contributions to life and culture through movement.

GALLIM continues to produce and perform the multidisciplinary co-creative works by the founder Andrea Miller in public, virtual, and theater spaces. Underpinned by physicality, virtuosity and piercing emotional and psychological texture, Miller has an expansive language that runs freely across mediums and boundaries. Called as "ultra modern and ancient as high art can get", Miller's work is defiantly that of an enfant-terrible—restless and yet insatiably brewing over the alchemy of creative process, performance, and collective communion. Miller was the first choreographer to be awarded Artist-in-Residence at the Metropolitan Museum of Art. She is a Guggenheim Fellow and received additional fellowships with Princess Grace and Sadler's Wells and has been featured in Forbes magazine as an arts entrepreneur and in The New Yorker. Miller's work continues to be performed internationally and is now made more available through digital spaces. Recent work includes You Are Here, a sound, sculpture and performance installation for Lincoln Center, and upcoming commissions for New York City Ballet and The Martha Graham Dance Company.
