Two Archives / Audience Engagement Interns work alongside the Director of Preservation and Associate Archivist to provide public access to the Pillow's extensive collection of videos, photographs, books, and other historical materials.

The Jacob's Pillow Summer Intern Program is now accepting applications for Festival 2022. Jacob's Pillow Interns receive on-the-job training to develop professional skills and gain practical experience while working in a team-oriented environment. Internships specialize in performing arts administration, technical production, education, community programming, and more. Interns receive room and board (on-site housing plus 3 meals a day) and a stipend of $2,000. Candidates may be eligible for additional needs-based compensation through sponsor support. Internships include access to performances, talks, and dance classes, as well as staff-led career talks and seminars. College credit, work-study, independent study, and/or cooperative learning programs may be available through your school. 2022 Summer Festival Internships will run May 24 through September 2.

Apply by February 3!
