Dance/NYC is pleased to partner with Buglisi Dance Theatre and all of our professional colleagues and friends from the NYC dance community on the 12th presentation of the 9/11 Table of Silence Project performance ritual for peace at Lincoln Center streamed live around the world. Since the inaugural performance in 2011, nearly 1400 dancers have performed in the Table of Silence Project, and during the pandemic over 4 million people viewed the live stream across all 50 states and in 235 countries/territories.

"The Table of Silence Project 9/11 needs your artistic voice now more than ever, as we are experiencing a pivotal moment in history. In this time of awakenings and transformation, we look to You, the artists for truths and solidarity. With You, the Table of Silence Project continues its evolution as a healing ritual, most relevant the present-day suffering of all those affected by war, environmental and social injustices, and violence against children." - Artistic Director Jacquelyn Buglisi
