Six Degrees Dance is looking for 2-3 choreographers for a split bill performance at The Mark O'Donnell Theater at the Actors Fund Arts Center on December 16 and 17.

Having emerged from a long period of shut down which greatly affected our life as art makers in NYC, Artistic Director Cecly Placenti wishes to bring together creators who are ready to get back to live performance but may not have enough material or resources at this time for an individual show.

Interested Choreographers should have a minimum of 3 years professional experience choreographing and presenting work. Production costs will be split between each choreographer based on the length of their pieces being shown. Works presented should be between 10- 30 minutes.

We are looking for work centered around social/political issues and the call for transformation.

This opportunity is ideal for artists who are currently working on material and need a place to showcase it or artists who have an idea for a piece but need the impetus to begin.
