ROOFTOP JESUS is the first film by Blue Lilith. We are a femme filmmaking duo made of amani meliyah and Grace B. Poppe. We filmically explore the complexities of intersectional feminism and how our communities give and receive love. For this project we are joined by co-producers Wolf Clarke Roth and Dumarck Barlatier

Film:

ROOFTOP JESUS is a satirical short film about the harmful effects of performative allyship. When protagonist Lena is stuck on a rooftop with a group of white activists, she questions the role of allyship in the fight for black liberation. As she is haunted by surreal nightmares in and out of dreaming, the film asks: what or who must be sacrificed for our collective salvation?

ROOFTOP JESUS follows a narrative structure and has elements of magical realism such as the recurring presence of angels and haunting nightmare sequences articulated through dance/movement.
