Seeking a talented Hip-Hop dance instructor for 2 one hour youth classes on Saturdays, starting September 17th. If interested, please reply with a resume and video link to your work.

Rod Rodgers Dance Company, known as RRDC is a modern based company located in the heart of the East Village on Fourth Arts Block. We are dedicated to creating work about the human experience that is constantly evolving, and work that reflects upon the society that we live in today. Our aim is to not only use dance as our medium to speak out and of our experiences, but to allow relationships to form throughout and beyond our community of the East Village.

RRDC provides our students with an enjoyable experience via our dance classes, workshops and performances, then encourages their excitement about the many possibilities of Dance Theater as an art form.

Qualifications:

- Candidates must be over 21+ with experience in teaching dance to children ages 4 through teens
- Must have knowledge and experience choreographing dance pieces for performances and costume preparations
- Must have commitment to teaching young dance students
- Must adhere to required class schedule
