Shows are currently scheduled for the end of April 2023.

Dancers desired skill set: Gaga, Contemporary Ballet, Contemporary Dance, 4+ years of experience.

FAUVE: This performance examines the commonality of depression and suicide for those both on and off the Autism Spectrum, and how this pain can be transformed to make the world around us more beautiful. The dancers will represent this by leaving behind a physical representation of what holds them back from happiness.

Isaac Iskra, born with Aspergers, discovered dance in high school as a way to develop his communication. He received his formal dance training at @uttadaustin and, after moving to NYC, was selected for @mnelements Elements Emerging Choreographer series in 2019-20 and 2020-2021.
