Finleigh Zack Dance is looking for a Rehearsal Director/Assistant Director for their upcoming season.

Finleigh Zack Dance is a non profit dance company based in New York City inspring conversations and promoting advocacy around mental health awareness. The organization strives to use art and movement to explore ideas around mental health by offering resources in a creative space.

We are looking for one individual to help with rehearsals as well as assist with any administration work the Artistic Director might need. Tasks would include: help with producing our newest work this fall, attend rehearsals and help with creative process, light admin work such as social media and sending emails.

We are looking for someone who is wanting to learn more about the non profit sector and how to help run a small start up dance company. One of our biggest values is collaboration. We are looking for someone who is hands on, creative, and is willing to work through ideas and work on the creative process in rehearsals.

Please send your resume over with a brief introduction and why you would like to work with FZD to finleighbzackdance@gmail.com

Deadline is Monday April 3rd
