Drye/Marinaro Dance Company presents work honoring real life experiences. The process is a form of healing, and an outlet for the choreographers and dancers. With community as the pillar of our artistic mission, We strive to create a safe space to connect to these real life experiences for both our collaborators and professional artists, and viewers. Our work aims to intrigue audiences with thought-provoking themes, using dance as the medium to make connections about life and human interactions. Using dance as a way to tell our stories is vital as our outlet, and our truest voice.

Compensation
