The event will highlight four award-winning short dance films and an intimate conversation with choreographer and filmmaker Anabella Lenzu. How do we navigate the unbalanced life of a parent/art-maker?

What makes a good mother? What makes a good artist?

The dance films reflect Anabella Lenzu's experience as an artist living in New York and come from a deep examination of her motivations as a woman, mother, and immigrant.

Since 2006, Anabella Lenzu has presented 390 performances, created 14 choreographic works at 100 venues, and produced 9 dance films presented in over 200 festivals both nationally and internationally.
