The application process includes a work sample, artist description and $10 application fee. There is a $10 application fee which goes directly toward our production costs. If this fee creates a barrier for you, please contact Inhale Performance Series Curator, Evalina Carbonell: evalina@kyld.org to request a waived fee. Artists/Organizations should submit pieces of 10 minutes or less.

Longer pieces will be considered, but short pieces are prioritized to present a greater number of artists. We strongly encourage applications from BIPOC artists and communities. Artists will be notified of their acceptance status one month before the performance.

"In a city like Philadelphia where even the established companies find themselves vying for the same audiences, it's easy for emerging artists to get overlooked. Fortunately, the quarterly InHale Performance Series, hosted by Kun-Yang Lin/Dancers at CHIMovement Arts Center, gives up-and-coming choreographers a much needed and well deserved chance to strut their stuff."
