Accent Dance NYC is seeking professional ballet/contemporary ballet dancers for its upcoming spring season. Dancers should have very strong ballet technique with the versatility to perform contemporary works as well.

We are seeking immediate replacement dancers for Pedro Ruiz's work Danzón, a reimagining of the traditional Cuban social dance, and Danielle Diniz's A Place for Us, a newly commissioned work about immigrant narratives. We will also be considering dancers for other works and future projects.

A Place for Us: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=i4MCuiaSOVI>

Accent Dance NYC was founded to celebrate multiculturalism through dance and prioritizes hiring artists who reflect the communities we serve. BIPOC and immigrant dancers are especially encouraged to apply, though all are welcome.

Audition Details: Invitation-only, January 6, 2025; 10:00 AM-1:00 PM in NYC

If you are interested in auditioning, please send the following details to andrea@accent.dance no later than January 3:

Resume or detailed bio of your training and performance experience

Headshot or picture of yourself

Video of you dancing including ballet (reels, performance footage, or studio footage are all acceptable). We are looking for ballet or contemporary ballet styles. We will view up to 3 minutes of footage. If your video is longer than 3 minutes, please provide cue times for the section you would like us to watch.

Any scheduling conflicts between January 2025-March 2025

Dancers invited to attend the audition will be given the audition location and more details.

About the Opportunity

Compensation: $20/hr for rehearsals, $150-$250 for performances

Selected dancers will be asked to perform in Accent Dance NYC's upcoming NY Season in early spring 2025. The dates and location of the performances are still being determined, and dancers' availability will be taken into account. While we are seeking immediate replacements for the season, we are also looking for dancers for future projects.
