From Marble Hill 225th Street - Take the Metro-North Hudson Line from Marble Hill Station. Exit at Yonkers Station (approximately a 10-minute ride).

At MorDance, we are deeply committed to fostering equity and respect for all our dancers. Recognizing the historical disparities in compensation and expectations within the ballet community, we prioritize equitable practices across the board. All dancers, regardless of gender identity, are compensated equally. We believe that every dancer should be held to the same professional standard, prioritizing teamwork, dedication, and a positive attitude. Transparent communication around responsibilities and compensation ensures fairness and mutual understanding within the company. By advocating for these practices, MorDance aims to inspire broader change in the ballet world, creating a more inclusive and innovative environment where all voices are valued, and all contributions recognized.
