Lawton Dance Collective is a women-led company of contemporary dance artists. We believe in the vital role of art in processing the world, broadening perspectives, disrupting patterns, and practicing empathy. Our process is research-driven and collaborative; we are interested in consistent discovery through the development of new work. At LDC, we place great value on community and creating spaces where kindness, generosity, and love are at the forefront. Learn more at <https://lawtondancecollective.com>
