Artists Who Care, founded in 2018, is a referral-based business connecting New York City families needing flexible childcare and artists with childcare experience seeking supplemental income. Positions filled thus far have included ad-hoc babysitting, recurring weekly childcare positions ranging 2-30hrs/wk, travel nannies as well as NYC overnight care while parents are away, birthday parties/private events, dog-walking, overnight dog-sitting, and tutoring. Artists Who Care is a business with a dedication to supporting the arts. 10% of AWC's annual net earnings is donated toward funding the arts in the New York public school system.

At this time, Artists Who Care has limited spots available. AWC is only seeking the following:

Female child caregivers with weekday availability starting in time for school pickup (generally 3pm) and lasting for a few hours. Temporary needs have various start dates this fall and last through to the beginning of winter break.

*Candidates added to the AWC roster will additionally be considered for all future opportunities as they arise (*including those with specialty rates such as travel nannies, tutoring, etc.) You will also be eligible for AWC's waitlisted families who are seeking 2nd semester care (*meetings/trials in December for official January start dates.)
