NW Dance Project offers a unique, creative, and enriching two-week company-style residency designed for professional-level dancers (21+) seeking to immerse themselves in creative processes with leading international contemporary choreographers, Mike Tyus and Akira Uchida.

Dancers can develop and discover their unique creative voice and offers an opportunity to see and be seen by our Artistic Director Sarah Slipper and guest choreographers. MOVE will culminate with a public showing of the work created during the residency.

Participation in MOVE is very limited in capacity so dancers and choreographers can connect and collaborate as a unified company of artists.
