Calling choreographers, works-in-progress, and special acts!

Twysted Genius is curating a performance evening at The Producers Club, a downtown black box theatre and bar known for its edgy, creative atmosphere. The venue features a traditional 51-seat theatre space with the added freedom of a bar setting—audiences are welcome to bring drinks into the theatre, creating a relaxed but focused performance environment.

We are seeking choreographers, dancers, and multidisciplinary performers to present short pieces or acts under 7 minutes. This evening is designed for finished works, works in progress, and experimental pieces that benefit from an intimate audience and a flexible, non-traditional show structure.

The event will take place on February 20th and will include two evening performances. Selected artists will be provided with rehearsal access, technical support, and performance space. The show will be curated to include a range of styles, tones, and disciplines, offering a dynamic and engaging audience experience.

This is not an open mic. It is a curated performance night intended for artists who are interested in sharing concise, impactful work in a supportive but professional setting.

To submit, please send:

- Video footage or images of the proposed work or past work (unfinished ok!)
- A headshot
- A brief message describing your piece or act

Submissions should be emailed to madelineranderson@yahoo.com.

Curated by Twysted Genius, a multidisciplinary creative project rooted in movement, visual art, and process-driven creation. This evening celebrates experimentation, contrast, and strong artistic voices within a structured theatrical space
