male contemporary dancer needed -- in your 50s (more or less) -- for dance film

I'm looking for a male contemporary dancer who looks to be in his fifties, or thereabouts, for a short dance film. You will be dancing a duet with me; our movement will be informed by our experience of fear and how we move through it. Our duet will be about a three-minute section in a film with six other sections. Each section deals with various types of fear people experience as they move through...
