CAVE SUBSIDIZED STUDIO SHARE RESIDENCY OPEN CALL for two new residencies

CAVE, one of Williamsburg's longest-running experimental art spaces, hosts year-long subsidized studio share residency to five individual/groups. Through this residency, CAVE aims to provide an arena for artistic exploration to the local community of dancers, choreographers, interdisciplinary artists, and body-workers, all who seek the space to create and share their work.

ABOUT THE RESIDENCY

The next CAVE Subsidized Studio Share Residency begins November 1, 2010. For a flat monthly fee of $270 USD, CAVE Subsidized Studio Share Resident artists receive: up to twelve hours per week of rehearsal/private class space; bi-monthly inclusion of their activities on CAVE's e-mail newsletter; access to Material for the Arts supplies; and the use of one small camcorder and one video projector (in-studio use only).

ABOUT THE STUDIO

This studio space is 450 square feet with 16 foot – 11 foot ceilings. It has a sprung, black marley floor, a private dressing area and an adjacent restroom. It is equipped with a stereo system (CD player and iPod hook-up). The space is heated during the winter and has fans for the summer, as well as skylights. Chosen artists will be responsible for self-management and keeping the studio clean.

HOW TO APPLY
